

News release

Kyowa Kirin Announces Its Organization Changes

Tokyo, Japan, February 5, 2020 ---Kyowa Kirin Co., Ltd. (TSE:4151, President and CEO: Masashi Miyamoto) announced that it will change its organizations effective April 1, 2020. Details are as below.

1. Outline of the changes:

-Establishment of Strategic Product Planning Department

The new department will be set up under the President's direct control and take control of two main functions, one is the current Global Product Management Office, which manages global strategic products and the other is product strategy planning function from the current Corporate Strategy & Planning Department.

2. Purpose of the organizational changes

- 1) To carry out all the product strategy management including global strategic products under one department;
- 2) To ensure the current Corporate Strategy & Planning Department carry out business strategy planning and business management in a timely manner.